

Managing Geophysical Logging Engineer: Salt Lake City, Utah

Century is recruiting for a borehole geophysical logging engineer and station manager trainee. The successful candidate will work independently on various projects primarily in northern Utah, Nevada and Colorado.

Preference will be given to candidates with the following criteria:

- Mine site experience
- Current MSHA and/or OSHA certification
- Geology, Geophysics, Environmental, or Engineering degrees preferred
- Wire line Logging experience preferred
- Perforating Experience, ability to pass background check for BATF
- Mechanical Abilities
- Living near Lindon, Utah or willing to move (within 30 miles).

Requirements:

- Valid driver's license with a clean driving record
- Ability to work internationally including if required
- Be able to work independently in harsh environments
- Be able to communicate effectively
- Driving CMV and following FMCSA rules and regulations using ELD's
- Ability to troubleshoot and solve minor technical problems in the shop and in the field
- Be proficient with computers
- Ability to have a flexible and highly variable work schedule
- Pass a Drug test and Driving Record back ground check

Job sites include:

- Surface Mines, Metal and Non-Metal
- Groundwater and Water Production
- Contamination and Environmental Clean-up
- Construction and Infrastructure Evaluation
- Coal and Shallow Oil and Gas
- State and Federal Installations

Compensation:

- You are entitled to the following benefits that will be discussed in your interview, in accordance with Century's policies, including:
- Company sponsored retirement plan
- Company sponsored Medical, coverage
- Monthly Salary and Commission based on revenue

Century is a Drug and Alcohol free company.

If interested please send your resume to peter@century-geo.com